

1 Vocab

Soliloquy - A character's thoughts spoken out loud

- Allows the audience to step into the perspective of characters
- Usually, the character is on stage by themselves

Aside - character's speech directly to the audience

Monologue - Long speech spoken by a single character

Comic Relief - Humorous interruption in a tragic story

Prose - Traditional style of writing: paragraph form

Double entendre - Double meaning where one is literal and the other is more risqué

2 Modernism

The rejection of traditional forms of expression in favor of newly emerged ones.

2.1 Values

$$\int \text{gay sex is better than straight sex} \tag{1}$$

$$\int \text{the statement above is false} \tag{2}$$